

STINGRAY

We should thank Allah for our loving and caring parents

Their eyes are on top of their bodies and mouth on the underside so they can't see their prey.
They use smell and electroreceptors to detect their prey.